

UNION DELEGATES COURSES STH AUST

Building a Strong Union - Delegates Level 1

This 3 day course is essential learning for all new and existing union delegates and includes sessions on the role of the delegate, our union values, union communication, delegates' rights and workplace laws. Delegates will learn new ways to help resolve workplace problems, build union membership and create a vibrant and active union

08, 09, & 29 February

AEU Parkside

Preparing to Bargain - Delegates Level 2

This course is for union delegates who are preparing to bargain for their next Agreement. It aims to give our delegates the knowledge and skills to plan and run a successful campaign. Sessions include planning, motivating and involving members, agreement making laws, communication, negotiation and action.

PRE-REQUISITES:

To attend this course delegates must have attended the NUW Stage 1 Course and have a workplace agreement that expires before June 2012. (It is recommended you do this course 6-8 months before your agreement expires)

21 & 22 March

AEU Parkside

Running Union Inductions

This 1 day course is aimed at union delegates and OHS Reps who have responsibility for union inductions in their workplaces. If you regularly speak to new workers about joining our union, then you should attend this course. Sessions include communication skills, planning, understanding your agreement and history.

PRE-REQUISITE: It is recommended that delegates complete NUW Stage 1 course before attending this course

01 March

AEU Parkside

Building Secure Work

A new 1-day course for delegates exploring the challenges of working in the 21st Century workforce

With the increasing casualisation of the workforce and the rise of labour hire, it's important that Union delegates understand all of the changes that are happening at work, in our economy and under the law. This course is essential learning for all delegates especially if your workplace employs casual, labour hire or seasonal workers

27 March

AEU Parkside